

The Ohio State University Non-Discrimination Notice

Civil Rights Compliance Office

Non-Discrimination Notice

Members of the university community have the right to be free from all forms of protected class discrimination and harassment, including sexual misconduct, which impede the realization of the university's mission. The university is committed to supporting equal employment opportunity and eliminating discrimination and harassment. All members of the university community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that maintains an environment free from discrimination, harassment, and sexual misconduct. This expectation is consistent with our university's shared values and the law.

Ohio State does not discriminate on the basis of age, ancestry, color, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity or expression, genetic information, HIV/AIDS status, military status, national origin, pregnancy, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or protected veteran status, or any other bases under the law, in its activities, academic programs, admission, and employment. See below for inquiries regarding potential discrimination.

Contacts for Discrimination Concerns

The Ohio State University is committed to preventing and responding to all forms of harassment, discrimination and sexual misconduct. The university's Civil Rights Compliance Office (CRCO) was created to coordinate the university's response to all complaints of harassment, discrimination, and sexual misconduct. Any student, faculty, staff, or covered third party subjected to harassment, discrimination, or sexual misconduct, may report the incident to CRCO.

Concerns may be reported to CRCO via the online reporting form, available at civilrights.osu.edu, or by contacting CRCO.
